

AAT eNews & Views Newsletter

Hello Vincent,

Now that we are well and truly into the expo and conference spirit of things, it reminded me how much I have missed seeing the faces of my accounting community.

I was fortunate to attend the Australian Business Expo in Sydney in April as a speaker, and last week, I went along to Intuit Get Connected.

Listening to some of the speakers in a face-to-face environment leaves no room for multi-tasking or distraction. I love that they had 100% of my attention, and I appreciated the audience interaction that kept things alive.

There is no denying that virtual learning is the new form of CPD, but I encourage you all to commit to attending one or two in-person events when you get the opportunity. That human interaction between the speaker and audience cannot be cloned online.
